OPPORTUNITIES

We're looking for a few good Legionnaires! Post 179 has the following critical areas. Contact Commander Jerry Wray (830-660-9728) or First Vice Commander Brad Henderson (830-660-4072):

Second Vice Commander – The Second Vice Commander builds an “I like my post because” atmosphere in which Legionnaires have fun while doing the work of the Legion.

Key responsibilities include planning and managing:

- a. Legion Calendar
- b. Holiday Observances
- c. Social Events.

Assistant Adjutant – Like the First Sergeant of a company, Post activities revolve around the Adjutant. Key responsibilities include providing assistance with:

- a. Providing continuity in the Post
- b. Serving as HR Officer and point of contact for the post
- c. Maintaining membership records
- d. Maintaining minutes of official meetings
- e. “Ways and Means”: Checks up and assists the work of other officers and committees.
- f. Publishes official orders, announcements, and instructions

Assistant Service Officer – Key responsibilities include assisting the Service Officer with:

- a. Informing veterans and their dependents of their rights and benefits granted by law.
- b. Accessing and utilizing the expert services available through Legion channels and other community agencies.
- c. Providing necessary claims forms.

Honor Guard – (Bugler and a minimum of 4 Firing Squad members)

NOTE: The Post has an electronic bugle.

Key responsibilities include:

- a. (Bugler) Sounding “Taps” at Memorial Day ceremonies and cemetery ceremonies.
- b. (Firing Squad) Firing a salute to the dead at cemetery ceremonies.

Please put this message out to all 14th District Posts.
